THE INVESTMENT

WHAT'S ON OFFER?

Nurturing connection and creativity

We recognise that play and creativity cultivate a sense of connection and belonging. That's why our creative studio has been thoughtfully designed with this principle at heart.

“See images of our space in action by clicking here or reach out for a live virtual space walk around.”

Our space can comfortably host groups of up to 25 people. All packages include the use of a spacious kitchen/breakout area, stocked with tea, coffee, and light refreshments throughout your booking. If you book for a full day, hot drinks will be replenished in the afternoon.

ABOUT US

To quote a thought provoking question from the great Cilla Black... "What's it all about Alfie?!" Well Cilla, since you asked we will not only tell you what we are about but why we are about it.

Packages	What we do...	Why we do it...
	Provide access to our immersive creative studio. We create the space, participants give themselves the permission and the magic just happens...	To help naturally evoke creativity and spontaneous play. Our creative studio is designed to support individuals in utilising a new space to feel inspired, intrigued and unlock potential.
	Provide access to our immersive creative studio with bespoke expertly curated activities and resources for you and your people to ensure the day is unforgettable!	To support people to engage more creatively, sparking imagination, helping build relationships and expand big thinking and ideas sharing.
	Provide access to our immersive creative studio with a host to facilitate bespoke activities to enable all participants to Learn, Connect and Play all at the same time!	To allow participants to fully embrace the You're Invited workshop experience. We showcase how creativity and play are integral to building a culture where everyone thrives. *Optional dressing up is mandatory
